The G20 crossword competition organized by our club, Saahitya, was scheduled for 30th June, a Friday, from 3:30 PM to 4:30 PM.

The event took place in the double lobby of the college, which was located opposite room number 033.

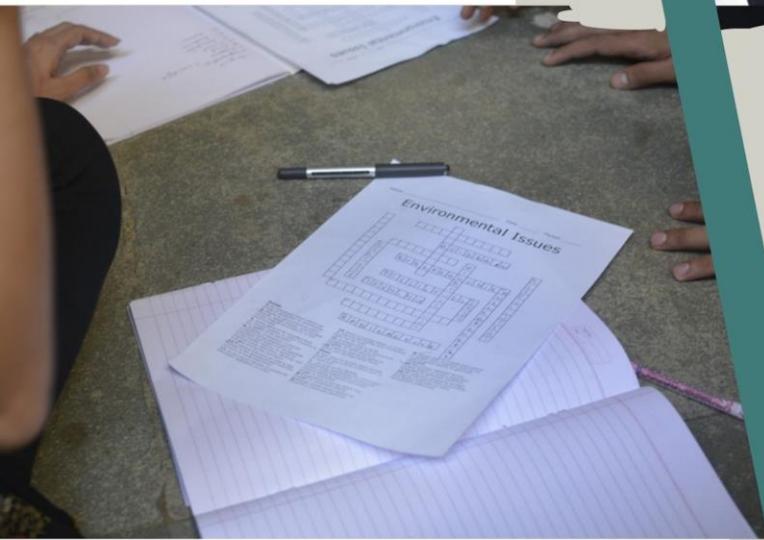

As the clock struck 3:30 PM, participants and crossword enthusiasts started gathering in the area with excitement and anticipation.

The G20 crossword competition left a lasting impression on everyone present.

As the clock ticked away, some participants showed signs of excitement, while others seemed to be deep in thought, trying to crack the more challenging clues.

It was agreed that Saahitya would continue to organize such engaging literary events in the future, enriching the college experience for all students passionate about literature and language.

It was a sight to behold as these young minds engaged in an intellectual battle of words and wits.

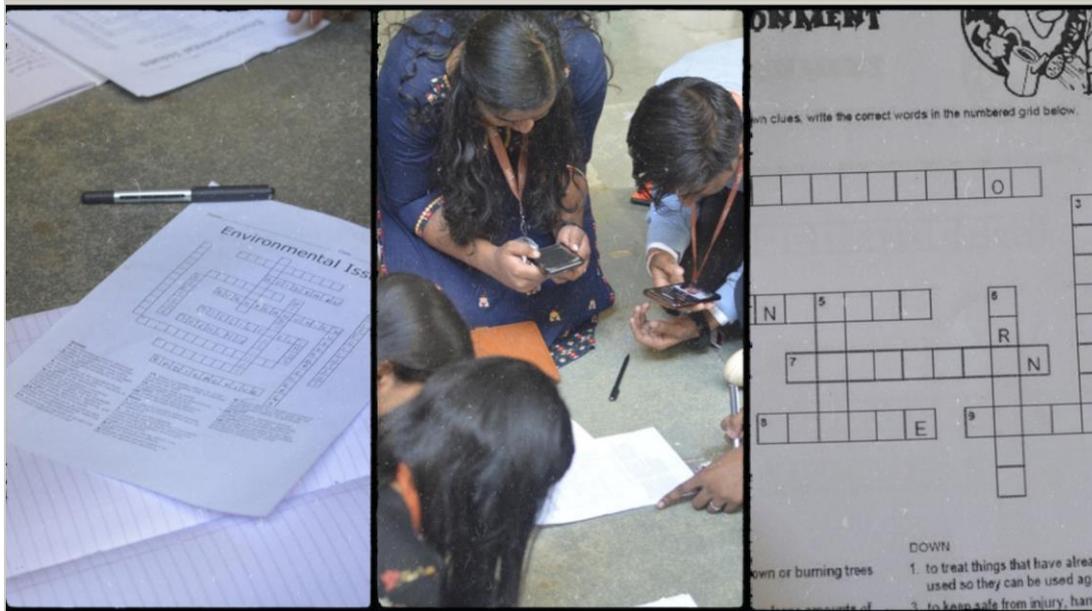

At the stroke of 3:45 PM, the crossword puzzles, thoughtfully curated around environmental themes, were distributed to each participant. The room filled with anticipation as they flipped over their papers and began deciphering the clues. Determined faces scribbled away with pens and pencils, driven by the desire to emerge victorious in this intellectually stimulating challenge.

Throughout the competition, the spirit of healthy competition was intermingled with an underlying camaraderie. The diligent Saahitya members enthusiastically provided assistance and support to the participants, ensuring a sense of inclusivity and fair play throughout the event. The passion for environmental awareness and literature was palpable in every corner of the lobby.

As the clock struck 4:30 PM, the competition concluded, leaving participants with a sense of fulfillment and accomplishment. The room erupted in a buzz of conversations as participants shared their experiences
