

Guest Lecture Event Report

Organizing Department: Department of Management Studies, MVJCE

Date: 27th Jan-2024

Event Type: Guest Lecture.

Event Name : Guest Lecture on Recent Trends in HR Management

Chief Guest: Mr. J. Paul David Vimal, -HR Head, Red Apple Kitchen Consultancy.

The Department of Management Studies, MVJCE, organized a guest lecture on Recent Trends in HR Management at Seminar Hall 5, on January 27, 2024.

The Chief guest, Mr. Paul David Vimal, spoke of the expectations of the corporate world for MBA students, the use of AI in various HR roles, and practical knowledge for interview preparation. He emphasized the value of KPI and KRA and goal-setting for professional advancement, drawing on his experiences spanning from his early career to his current position as head of HR.

He emphasized the value of having a professional resume and offered advice on how to write an outstanding one. Additionally, he went over the HR lifecycle and the major responsibilities of an HR manager.

Engaged the students and inspired by his excellent talk, Mr. Paul Vimal answered the questions about different facets of the hiring and selection process.

HR Club in the Department of Management Studies organized the event.

Ms. Divya Spoorthi Karanth and Ms. Suchitha did the master of ceremony.

Outcome of the Event:

- Students learned the latest trends in HR Management.
- Interacted with the Chief Guest and clarified their queries about the current practices followed in Recruitment, Selection and Training of Employees.
- Understood the expectations of the corporate world

(Please find below the photos)

Prof. Prakash Rajagopal honouring Mr. Paul David Vimal, HR Head – Red Apple Kitchen Consultancy Chief Guest of the event.

Mr. Paul David Vimal delivering the lecture on Recent Trends in HR Management.

Enthusiastic students interacted with Mr. Paul David Vimal and clarified their queries.